

Insights in Autoimmune Disorders

Received: April 10, 2020; Accepted: April 23, 2020; Published: April 30, 2020

On behalf of the Board of the Journal of Autoimmune Disorders (IPADO) and my co-editors I am proud to introduce you to the first fully open access peer-reviewed online journal in Autoimmune. The journal started publishing in 2015 and has since then published several high quality papers and reviews. Journal of Autoimmune Disorders (IPADO) is a peer-reviewed, open access journal that reflects articles on all types of tumor immunology. Though the journal started recently it has completed 5 volumes successfully and now it is in 6th volume. This is the result of the work of many people committed to the creation and development of a journal that focuses on standards relevant to the Autoimmune Disorders. Our goal is to provide scholars worldwide with comparative papers on recent developments and research work on Autoimmune on the international level.

It delivers timely interpretations of key scientific developments in Autoimmune and its related areas of study. Known personalities with expertise and published studies in a specific field are invited to write reviews and editorials in our journal. Un-invited reviews will also be accepted if written by experts with publications in the field. Manuscripts submitted to the journal will be accepted on the understanding that the author has not previously submitted the paper to another journal or had the material published elsewhere. Manuscripts are rejected if it shows high percentage of plagiarism.

Highlights

I am pleased to mention that during the year 2019, all issues of volume 2 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

I would like to extend my appreciation to members of the editorial board, who do a substantial amount of work reviewing manuscripts submitted to the journal[1]. In addition to editorial board members, I also rely on ad hoc reviewers to ensure the most appropriate level of expertise for every manuscript submitted to the journal for peer review[2].

In 2020 journal aims to serve as a forum for new concepts and advances in basic Studies on several diseases which are in connection to certain autoimmune condition, such as Addison's
